

HIGHLIGHTS OF PUD'S FIRST 10 YEARS . . .

- ★ Residential sales of electricity increased 270 percent.
- ★ Revenues from the sale of electricity gained 148 percent.
- ★ Number of electric customers increased 52 percent.
- ★ Use of electricity in the average household jumped 143 percent.
- ★ Cost per kilowatt for residential use dropped 34 percent.
- ★ Revenue bonds refunded effecting a savings in interest of approximately $5 million over the life of the bonds.
- ★ Over $18,000,000 was invested in new plant entirely from electric revenues.
- ★ $4,332,226 of taxes were paid by the District out of its income to support schools and local and state government.
- ★ Rate cuts made by the District have already saved the people more than $2.5 million since 1955.
- ★ Liberalized line extension policy.
- ★ Residential street lighting throughout county modernized.
- ★ The District's substation capacity to meet current and future growth was increased 443 percent.
- ★ The District and City of Everett agreed to jointly develop the Sultan River for power and water.

Pictured at the left is the beautiful south entrance to the new Electric Building. On the right is the Greyhound Building which served as administrative headquarters from 1949 to 1958.

